

Spring Forward, Slow Down

Sometimes the best trips happen when you step away from the busy pace of everyday life. In Amador County, the foothills offer space to slow down, explore charming towns, enjoy wine country, and recharge. Our small town hospitality with big city amenities are here whether you're slipping away midweek or lingering a little longer.

Amador Spotlight

Amador County is getting noticed! A recent episode with Monique Soltani of Wine Oh! TV samples wine in the most unique places in Amador, from the below ground Black Chasm Caverns to the breathtaking views of the Kennedy Mine.

“Amador County’s Liquid Gold: Vines, Mines, and California’s Hidden Wine Gem,” showcases the region’s historic vineyards, scenic landscapes, and the people behind our thriving wine community.

Take a few minutes to watch and see why Amador continues to draw attention from wine lovers and travelers alike.
